Tēnā koutou and haere mai to the 77th Annual General Scientific and Scientific Meeting of the New Zealand Society of Otolaryngology, Head and Neck Surgery, to be held at Claudlands Convention Centre, Kirikiriroa, Hamilton, New Zealand; from 15th – 18th October 2024.

The ORL 2024 Conference aims to bring together leading experts, researchers, and professionals in the field of Otolaryngology, Head & Neck Surgery, providing a unique platform for knowledge exchange, networking opportunities, and the exploration of innovative developments in the ORL field.

We are carefully curating a program that focuses on sustainability in ORL. This will include a focus on ensuring:

- sustainability of our services in a changing healthcare environment
- that we, as clinicians, protect our own sustainability
- that we work to promote environmental sustainability
- that our future work is equitable in its provision

With a diverse range of sessions, panel discussions, and workshops, the conference promises to be an enlightening and immersive experience for all participants, regardless of whether your work is focused on the full breadth of ORL or any of the sub-specialties.

In addition to the informative sessions, the ORL 2024 Conference will also feature a vibrant exhibition hall, showcasing the latest advancements in medical equipment, pharmaceuticals, and related services. This will be an excellent opportunity for you to connect with industry leaders and explore cutting-edge technologies that can enhance your clinical practice.

Thank you for considering our invitation to the ORL 2024 Conference. We eagerly await your participation and look forward to welcoming you to Hamilton, for an unforgettable conference experience.
